NOTICE OF REGISTRATION OF OUT-OF-STATE CUSTODY DECREE

1. To: (name):
(person listed in item 5 of the Registration of Out-of-State Custody Decree)
2. The attached out-of-state custody decree is enforceable as of the date of registration in the same manner as an order issued by a California court.
3. If you want to contest the validity of this registered out-of-state custody decree, you must request a hearing date within 20 days of the date that this notice was mailed to you (see below for clerk's date of mailing). A request for a hearing must be in writing and filed in said action.
4. If you do not request this hearing, the out-of-state decree will be confirmed in California and you will not be able to challenge its validity in the future.
5. At the hearing, the court will confirm the out-of-state order unless you can prove that:
 - a. The issuing court did not have jurisdiction under chapter 2 of the Family Code (commencing with section 3421).
 - b. The child custody determination sought to be registered has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court having jurisdiction to do so under chapter 2 of the Family Code (commencing with section 3421).
 - c. You were entitled to notice of the original order, but did not receive that notice in accordance with the standards of section 3408 of the Family Code in the proceedings before the court that issued the order for which registration is sought.

CLERK'S CERTIFICATE OF MAILING

I certify that I am not a party to this cause and that a copy of the Registration of Out-of-State Custody Decree and all attachments was sent to the person named in item (1) by first-class mail. The copies were enclosed in an envelope with postage fully prepaid. The envelope was addressed to the person named in item (1) only at the address listed on the reverse of this form, sealed, and deposited with the United States Postal Service.
